CLEVELAND HARD TIMES.

Albany Journal.—These should not be termed Jeffersonian nor Jacksonian hard times. These are Cleveland hard times. Both Jefferson and Jackson were Protectionists.

THE VOICE OF EXPERIENCE.

Washington Post.—If those Coloradans who are unduly excited will apply to the residents of the state of South Carolina they will learn of something to their advantage.

PERTINENT.

Boston Journal.—Among all of Hoke Smith's reductions and suspensions has anybody heard of the lightning striking a single ex-Confederate pensioner of the Mexican War.

ONE RECIPE.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.—One good way to promote the restoration of confidence is to keep the fact in sight that the Democratic party is going to be beaten in the fall elections.

A FINANCIAL ORGAN'S VIEW.

New York Financier.—Uncertainty about prospective values in manufactured articles has done more to paralyze the industries of the United States than any uncertainty about silver legislation.

THE REAL DIFFICULTY.

Troy Times.—Undoubtedly the repeal of the Silver Purchase clause of the law is advisable, but that alone will not restore confidence. The people hesitate because they cannot make sure calculations so long as radical Tariff legislation is threatened.

SINGULAR.

Syracuse Herald.—It is a singular thing that President Cleveland should have decided to call an extra session for August to consider the situation only about two days after Governor Roswell P. Flower had remarked that there was no need of doing so.

A GREAT DEAL, INDEED.

Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.—A Democratic organ in Connecticut tells its readers "there is no reason to howl hard times when a barrel of flour can be bought for $4." Well, that depends. The ease or difficulty of getting the $4 has a great deal to do with the case.

AN UNPOPULAR INVITATION.

Lebanon Star.—The farmers of Ohio will receive $10,000,000 less for their wool this year than last, although there is as much of it and the quality is not inferior. So much for a Free-trade policy. If the farmers like it they can get more of the same kind by voting the Democratic ticket this fall.

REFRESHING.

Boston Journal.—"With a change of Government in the state," reads an advertisement in a Welsh paper, "there is every prospect of a grand revival of trade." It is refreshing to find business interests which expect increased prosperity from a Democratic Administration, even if you have to cross the broad Atlantic to find them.

LOOK OUT FOR THIS COUNTRY.

Legan (O.) Gazette.—The Tariff keeps wool up, but it keeps American factories at work, American wool-growers in business and American labor employed. What good is cheap wool if it doesn't benefit our country? It is good for Australia to see prices down in this country. But we are not concerned as to Australia's prosperity. It is American success we are ambitious for.

THE COUNTRY SHOULD BE INFORMED.

Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.—If Protection is not to be destroyed notice to that effect should be given from Washington. The country is in a state of direful doubt and uncertainty. It knows nothing of the conditions that will govern business affairs six months hence. This ignorance, together with a fear that the doctrine proclaimed at Chicago may be enforced, is responsible for nine-tenths of the present disorder and depression.

SAMUEL M. PRYOR, aged 70, died suddenly at Paris from paralysis. He was a prominent Berkshire hog raiser.
